DIVORCE SUIT.

The Divine Right to Whip His Wife gets Henry Sieber into Trouble.

Be Chastises Her and Breaks His Contract, According to the Petition-Other Matters of Interest in the Courts-

Henry Seeber, who lives in the crosstimiturs near Arlington, holds peculiar ideas in regard to matrimony, and they have lasded him in the courts.

Henry is a German in all except birth. and his ideas do not always gibe with the modern view of things. He is, howgrer, well-to-do in this world 's goods as farmers go. He has a nice farm of 272 acres that is rich with corn and cotton. and his annual income is about $1200.

A little less than a year ago Henry. who is about thirty-three years old, felt the force of the old saying that it is not good for man to be alone, and visited Hollis, who had a buxom daughter fourteen years of age named Samb. Henry told Neighbor Hollis that he was sick of living alone like a dog in as kennel, and wanted someone to do his cooking for him, Neighbor Hollis was moved by this sad appeal, and told fienry that he might have his daughter surab if he would not work her out in the helds. Henry bound the contract, and Surah was soon installed as mistress

At this point Henry's peculiar ideas come in. He holds that it is not only hardle, but a husband has a divine right. and it is the privilege and duty clastic his wife when she does wrong in the pussage in the Bible, which says if the right hand offend thee cut it off, and according to the allegations in the netition he immediately began to exers his Gal-given right. The petition scies that he commenced a course of streatment immediately after marmtil his girl wife took refuge in her other's house. The petition enuthe my of March something in the cooking spleased him and the divine right was executed with a bundle of switches. cain, on last Wednesday, Sarah's liege ed commanded her to follow the farm ada into the cotton field, this was besites all the household drudgery, and when she demurred it did offend him. The divine right and another bundle of switches were called into requisition

This not only injured his patient wife but was breach of the contract with neighbor Hollis, and she took shelter in her father's house. Neighbor Hollis came to town Thursday and took council with friends, complaining that the contract was broken. It resulted ladly for Henry, and yesterday adivorce suit was filed in the district art. The youthful plaintiff claims a since in the defendant's farm to the exat of $1000, and prays for alimony of $15 a month while the suit is pending.

Smith & Payne brought suit against P. Ford, the contractor, who is aliding the road to Arlington Heights. art of the work was sublet to the plaintiffs at a specified rate, which was agreed spon according to the petition, which es on to recite that rock material had su removed to the amount of $1750 arth to the amount of $1040, dirt had een moved into the out to the amount of Cliand teams hired to the amount of while defendent had paid but is and refused to pay more. The mit is for the balance of $2122.82.

Mollie E. Rennets and others filed a intervention against Robert McCart and others on lot 5, block C2, Duggett's addition. The plaintiff claims 000 damages and rents since 1888. la the county court the case of Oliver connedy against Chas. H. French for debt on a note and a verdict of EH was found for the plaintiff. The case of W. F. Lake against D. C. Kemper, garnishee for the Western manufacturing company was tried.

The amount was $100. The decision was withheat The suits set for to-day are Frank M.

Marple against the Western Union Telegraph company, E. Leonard against C Estell and Edward Tengstrom against J. F. Madison.
